100 REBELS ATTACK JAIL

Gang of Mexican Insurgents Met Severe Repulse by Rural Gards.

By Associated Press. Guanajuato, Mexico, April 30 .- One hundred rebels who attacked the jail at Irapuato, 21 miles from here last night, were repulsed by the small garrison of rural guards and volunteers. In the two hours fight, ten of the insurgents were killed and several wounded. The defending force had one man killed and one wounded. The assault on the jail was made with the object of releasing Miguel Machias, who had been arrested on the charge of being connected with the rebellion.
